America's Top Organizations for Multicultural Business Opportunities

The 16th annual list for "America's Top 50 Organizations for Multicultural Business" produced by DiversityBusiness.com was published with Wal-Mart stores being the top company when providing business opportunities to diverse business owners throughout United States. Known as Div50, the list of winners were selected as the top organizations that provide the most business for diversity-owned companies. Over 1,500,000 diverse business owners completed an online survey answering questions about diversity business in the marketplace where answers related to volume, consistency, and quality business opportunity factors. Other top companies include IBM, AT&T, Apple, Toyota, Microsoft and The Coca-Cola Company.
